Christianity is an Abrahamic monotheistic religion based on the life and teachings of Jesus of Nazareth. It is the world's largest religion, with about 2.6 billion followers as of 2020 estimation. Its adherents, known as Christians, make up a majority of the population in 157 countries and territories, and believe that Jesus is the Son of God, whose coming as the messiah was ... Gnosticism was the first major heresy which the early church was forced to resist and refute. A central tenet of it was docetism: the belief that Jesus only seemed human, but was really not tainted by the flesh. Modern bible-believing Christians often find it challenging to know how much humanity to allow Jesus. The proposed research aims to explore the experiences and perspectives of young Australians, with a particular emphasis on young women, involved in ...
